

Health, Safety and Environment Policy

Health, Safety and Environment objective

- Identify and assess environmental risks or impacts associated with the business activities.
- Provide control measure to eliminate or minimize the risks or impacts to a level as reasonably practicable.
- Comply with National Environmental Legislation and other applicable requirements.
- Establish and review environmental objectives and targets and monitor and analyses environmental performance for the continuous improvement.
- Promote the use of environmentally friendly materials, effective utilization of natural resources and efficient work processes for the prevention of pollution.
- Reinforce to all the employees and contractors to maintain environmental excellence in working environment.
- Perform periodic and comprehensive environment management assurance and implement appropriate corrective actions to eliminate non-conformances.

Policy on Health, Safety and Environment

Protecting people, environment, assets and reputation that are affected by its associated activities

- Comply to all National HSSE Law and Regulations
- Adhere to HSSE international standards and best practices
- No tolerate an HSSE violations
- Maintain a safe, healthy and secure working environment
- Ensure Process Safety Excellence
- Protect the environment and make efficient use of resources
- Embed a strong HSSE culture and throughout the workforce
- Maintain public confidence in the safety or our operations
- Continues to improve and implement its HSSE management system

HSSE policy is extended to its group companies, operators and constrictors to ensure similar commitment towards achieving the goal.

Security Policy

Providing a secure working environment for its people and assets as the utmost importance and protecting from all kinds of security threats internally or externally, deliberately or accidentally.

- Develop a security plan to ensure its effectiveness
- Report and investigate by the appropriate officers on any security breaches incidents, actual or suspected.

Information security is addressed separately to deal and maintain the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information.

HEALTH, SAFETY , ENVIRONMENT POLICY